

You can help
STOP BOYS TOWN

- e-mail, phone or write Mayor Williams. Ask him to support a policy which prohibits the District government from funding Boys Town's expansion.

mayer@dc.gov, 202-727-2980
One Judiciary Square, Washington, DC 20001

- e-mail, phone or write Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development Eric Price. Ask him how Boys Town was able to acquire land in the District without community input for a group home for very troubled teenagers.

eric.price@dc.gov, 202-727-6365
One Judiciary Square, Washington, DC 20001

- e-mail, phone or write Deputy Mayor for Public Safety Margaret Kellems. Ask her what public safety impact she expects on the neighborhood surrounding Boys Town's expansion site at 14th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, SE when 40-50 very troubled teenagers are placed there.

margaret.kellems@dc.gov, 202-727-6053
One Judiciary Square, Washington, DC 20001

- e-mail, phone or write Boys Town Executive Director Father Val Peter. Express your disapproval of the placement of a group home for 40-50 very troubled teens in a neighborhood struggling with crime and open-air drug markets.

hotline@boystown.com, 800-217-3700
14100 Crawford Street, Boys Town, Nebraska 68010

E-mail, phone or write Congresswoman Eleanor Holmes Norton. Ask her to look into the origins of the $7.1 million appropriation that enabled Boys Town to purchase the 14th and Pennsylvania Avenue, SE expansion site.

Dc00.wvr@housemail.house.gov, 202-225-8050
1424 Longworth HOB, Washington, DC 20515

It's not good for us
and it's not good for the kids.